Eligibility	Bridgeway will serve people with disabilities who can benefit from its programs without regard to dependent status, race, color, national origin or age.
Fee	Consumers either meet funders' criteria for individual service or can engage in private pay.
Services Provided	For persons with Developmental/Intellectual Disabilities – A full range of developmental disability services are focused on the primary life areas of living, learning, and working. Bridgeway focuses on whatever is needed to allow the individual the freedom of greater independence, self-sufficiency, greater choice and control over their lives, and increased participation in the community. Each person has unique talents and can develop and enhance life skills to live a fulfilling life. Community Employment - Bridgeway is a highly-respected leader in the field of employment for people with disabilities. Using the evidence based Individual Placement and Support Model (IPS), employment is three times more likely to occur for our job seekers. Our person-centered approach consists of a collaborative team of Employment Specialists, Job Coaches, Family Members, Doctors, Clinicians, Community Businesses, and any other natural supports who can help the people we serve to achieve a more fulfilling life by realizing their dream of having a job in their community. Substance Use – Bridgeway's Substance Use program assesses adolescents and adults who may be suffering from a dependency on alcohol or other drugs. Our program includes group therapy and intensive outpatient treatment, DUI evaluations, and educational services in a five county area. Various outpatient interventions are offered and delivered to local residents and their families who may be battling this disease. Community Living and Supports – Group homes provide opportunities for individuals who meet the admission guidelines to increase their independence. Residents have their own bedrooms, and share common areas like kitchens and living rooms.

Staff members teach residents how to cook, shop, manage their money, and other important skills necessary to live an independent life.

Apartment living provides the residents a place to increase their skills for potentially living on their own. While Bridgeway provides a stove and refrigerator, residents decide how they want their apartments to look, and they work to purchase their own furnishings. There is a centrally-located common area in the building for group training and activities.
